Who am I?

I am a multi talented camera operator, motion designer and producer who surpasses expectations working as a freelancer and in a team. I work in TV and web based broadcast but also make films in my spare time and run my company, Spark Productions. I communicate well with any age group.

Client feedback:

Shuriken: Richard Bell: Producer.

"...He tackled the creative and the work flow with strong commitment, understanding and creativity. We are extremely happy with the result and would not hesitate to involve Isaac in future projects."

Animfx 2009: Siobhan Bulfin: Event manager.

"...Isaac is both personable and professional and is confident and reliable. I highly recommend him to anyone with film/video and editing needs and I look forward to contracting his services again in the future."

MTV Networks NZ: Adam Rikys: Producer.

"...I look forward to seeing work produced by Isaac in the future."

New Zealand String Quartet.: Elizabeth Kerr: Manager.

"...Isaac combined his considerable creative skills with speed and charm to get a great result in a short time - and we all enjoyed the process."

Stage Challenge Foundation: Roxie Haines: Event Manager.

"...He (Isaac) has a huge amount of initiative and was able to see for himself what tasks needed to be worked on and would get stuck into these. He is also incredibly humble and holds a lot of integrity.

I would have no reservations in recommending Isaac for any positions he chooses to seek and know that his enthusiasm, experience and knowledge is a great asset to any organisation."
